On the Ration Return (Army Form 776) being closed at the end of each month, the local Officer in charge of supplies will furnish to each regiment, battalion, battery of Artillery, company of Engineers, Army Service Corps, or Ordnance Store Corps, or division of the Medical Staff Corps, a certificate (on Army Form F 743) showing the number of rations drawn. The certificate of rations drawn by a regiment of Cavalry or battalion of Infantry will be forwarded to the Officer Commanding, who will transmit it to the Paymaster, accompanied by a statement showing the number of rations to be accounted for by each troop or company.

54. The certificate of rations drawn by a battery of Artillery, company of Royal Engineers, Army Service Corps, or Ordnance Store Corps, or division of Medical Staff Corps, will be sent to the Officer Commanding the battery or company, &c., and will be attached as a voucher to the Ration Statement in his pay list for the month.

55. The adjustment of rations will be made at the end of each month; but to meet casualties which cannot be foreseen, a running account will be permitted, which will be finally closed on 31st January in each year, when the contract value of any rations then shown as overdrawn will be credited to the public.

If, however, on the closing of a monthly pay list other than that for January, an overdrawal of rations is discovered, the number of rations overdrawn will be carried forward to the Ration Statement in the pay list of the next month, provided the number overdrawn does not exceed five rations.

The contract value of the rations overdrawn in excess of the above limit will be credited to the public in the pay list of the month in which the overdrawal took place; but the amount so credited will be refunded if the General Officer Commanding (to whom the matter may be referred by the Officer Commanding the corps) decides that the overdrawal was not due to neglect on the part of the corps concerned. In dealing with these appeals the General Officer Commanding will satisfy himself that the overdrawal was unavoidable, and occurred so late in the month as to render an adjustment impossible within the period of the pay list. Any amount authorized to be refunded as above, will be admitted as a charge against the public, if supported by the authority (in original) of the General Officer Commanding, and a reference to the account in which credit has been given for the amount referred to.

(See also paras. 568 and 678.)

4. The following will be inserted after para. 676:—

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

A.O. 333.—Legal Proceedings.

The following regulations with regard to legal proceedings taken by or against persons subject to the Army Act, are hereby notified for the information of all concerned:—

I.—General Regulations.

1. All offences against the ordinary criminal code of the country committed by persons subject to the Army Act, and brought to the cognizance of the Commanding Officer, should forthwith be notified by him to the local police, that the same may be duly investigated by their agency, and punished by the civil criminal tribunals.
2. No solicitor will be employed on behalf of the public by any Commanding Officer in any legal proceedings. In any case where legal aid is thought to be necessary, a remand will be applied for, and a full report of the case (with depositions, if any) transmitted to the Secretary of State for War, who will, if he thinks fit, supply legal aid through the Solicitor to the Treasury.
3. Until the Secretary of State directs the Solicitor to the Treasury to take charge of any legal proceedings, or to reimburse the cost, he will incur no responsibility whatever on account thereof.
4. When authority is sought to commence or to defend legal proceedings either in the name or on behalf of the Secretary of State, a full statement of the facts must be sent up by the General Officer Commanding to the Under Secretary of State authenticated by the Head of the Department or Commanding Officer concerned

Heads of Departments when serving under General Officers Commanding, and Commanding Officers of Corps, will forward their applications through the General Officer.

5. Where Officers, or soldiers, are made defendants in civil or criminal proceedings, the defence thereof will be conducted upon the sole responsibility of such defendants until the decision of the Secretary of State is given. See also para. 651 of the Allowance Regulations, 1887.

6. When any claim is preferred to the Secretary of State for assistance in, or for the reimbursement of the cost of the defence, it must clearly be shown, with reference to the declaration or indictment (of which a copy should be sent, if possible, with the application), that the act complained of was one sanctioned by competent authority, or clearly within the prescribed course of the defendant's duty.

7. In cases of murder, where the accused and the deceased were both subject to the Army Act, the Commanding Officer will request the Magistrates forthwith to transmit a copy of depositions taken before them, to the War Office, that the case may (if the Secretary of State deems it expedient that a more speedy trial of the accused should be had than the usual course of practice allows) be prepared for trial by the Solicitor to the Treasury, under the jurisdiction in "Homicides Act, 1862."

II.—Abroad.

8. Where the adoption of the defence of legal proceedings abroad cannot wait the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, they should only be taken on the special authority of the General or other Officer Commanding, to whom a report of the circumstances of the case, together with a statement showing the probable expenses, will be addressed by the Head of the Department or Commanding Officer, on whose recommendation the legal proceedings are proposed to be taken.

9. This report and statement will be forwarded by the General or other Officer Commanding, together with a copy of his letter authorising legal proceedings, and a full explanation of his reasons for authorising them, to the Secretary of State for War for final approval; and in no case will the expenses incurred be admitted as a charge against Imperial funds, unless they have received such approval.

10. When legal proceedings have been authorised, the Head of the Department or Commanding Officer concerned, acting under the instructions of the General Officer Commanding, will, from time to time, furnish the Legal Adviser of the War Department with such information and assistance as he may require, and the General Officer Commanding will keep the Secretary of State advised as to the course being pursued.

11. In Colonies which have a responsible Government, and in which the Law Officers of the Crown may be frequently changed, and in other cases in which from some local circumstances, the General or other Officer Commanding, with the assent of the Governor, may consider that the Law Officers of the Crown are unable to attend conveniently to the business of the War Department, the General or other Officer Commanding will select a legal adviser of character and eminence in his profession, to act for the War Department. He may be one of the Colonial Law Officers or not; but, if not a Law Officer, nor an adviser paid by annual salary under para. 12, his name should be reported for the approval of the Secretary of State for War.

12. The remuneration of the selected adviser of the War Department shall either be—(a) by an annual salary to be fixed by the Secretary of State for War, with the previous concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, or (b) by fees certified by the General or other Officer Commanding to be in accordance with the scale of professional remuneration for like services prevailing in the Colony.

13. There are cases in which the services of the legal Officer of the Crown can only be rendered as a Barrister, and a case must therefore be prepared for him by an Attorney, and in some minor cases, the services of the Attorney may alone be required. General or other Officers Commanding will therefore use their judgment in such cases where a diminution of legal expenses may be effected without sacrificing public interests.

14. The Colonial authorities will be called upon to prosecute civilian offenders at the expense of the Colony, unless the case be of so grave or special a character as to make it desirable that special agents should be employed on behalf of the Home Government.

15. Clause 31, Army Circulars, 1886, is hereby cancelled.

APPENDIX TO ARMY ORDER 326.

SECTION I A.

GENERAL RULES to be observed when POWDER is necessarily kept in Buildings other than regular MAGAZINES.

1. Every building in which gunpowder is kept will be used only for the keeping of gunpowder, and of receptacles for, or tools or implements for, work connected therewith. The interior of every building in which any gunpowder is kept, and the benches, shelves, and fittings in such building, will be so constructed, or so lined or covered, as to prevent the exposure of any iron or steel, and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel, or similar substance, in such manner as to come into contact with the gunpowder in such building. The interior, benches, shelves, and fittings will, so far as is reasonably practicable, also be kept free from grit and otherwise clean.
2. Oiled cotton, oiled rags, and oiled waste, and any articles whatever liable to spontaneous ignition, will not be taken into any such building, except for the purpose of immediate use therein, and upon the cessation of such use will be forthwith removed.
3. Before repairs are done to, or in, any room in such a building, or other part of it, that room or part will, so far as practicable, be cleaned by the removal of all gunpowder, and the thorough washing out of such room or part.
4. There will be constantly kept affixed in every such building, on the inside of the door in such manner as to be easily read, a statement of the quantities of gunpowder allowed to be in the building.
5. Due provision will be made, by searching or otherwise, for preventing the introduction into any such building of fire, lucifer matches, or any substance or article likely to cause explosion or fire, and for preventing the introduction of any iron, steel, or grit into any part of such building where it would be likely to come into contact with gunpowder; but this rule will not prevent the introduction of an artificial light of such construction, position, or character as not to cause any danger of fire or explosion.
6. No person will smoke in any part of such building.
7. A person under the age of 16 years will not be employed in or enter any such building, except in the presence and under the supervision of some authorised adult person.
8. The amount of gunpowder to be kept in any such building will not exceed 200 lb.
9. All gunpowder exceeding one pound in amount will be kept in a substantial case-bag, canister, or other receptacle, made and closed so as to prevent the gunpowder from escaping.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

MAJOR-GENERAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

P. RAVENHILL, Major-General, R.E.,
Chairman of Committee.

GENERAL ORDERS.

QUEEN'S REGULATIONS.

A.O. 337.—Examinations for Promotion.

It is notified that, after the 31st March 1890, the provisions of sub-para. I. of para. 39, Section IX., of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1885, as amended by General Order 68 of 1887, will, as regards the possession of a First Class Certificate of Education, be held to apply to Warrant Officers or non-commissioned officers who may be recommended for a commission as Quarter-master or Riding-master.

INSTRUCTIONS, &c.

I.—REGULAR FORCES.

A.O. 338.—Examinations for Promotion.

1. A report has been received by the Commander-in-Chief of the case of an Officer who, when examined for his promotion, gave in as his own work a paper which he had copied from the work of another Officer. His Royal Highness has learned with regret that there is reason to believe that this is not a solitary instance of an offence of this nature, and he is determined to put a stop to it.
2. The Officer who allows his paper to be copied is guilty of the same misconduct as he who copies from him. They both endeavour to deceive their superior Officer in a matter of duty and of public importance; and such conduct becomes disgraceful in view of the certificate signed by an Officer that he has not received any assistance during the examination.
3. His Royal Highness desires to notify that should any Officer in future be guilty of conduct so unbecoming the character of an Officer and a gentleman, his remaining in the Army will become a matter for consideration.
4. His Royal Highness desires also to call the attention of the Officers who superintend the examinations to the importance of their duties. He is satisfied that if they strictly carried out those duties, there would not be the laxity which at present prevails in these examinations.

A.O. 339.—Staff College—Entrance Examination.

1. At the Examination for Admission to the Staff College to be held in June 1890, questions in Military History will be set as follows:—
 (a.) On the principles of strategy, as explained and illustrated in "The Operations of War," Parts I. to V.
 (b.) On the Campaigns in Northern Italy and in Virginia. Sir E. B. Hamley's accounts of these campaigns should be taken as the basis for their study.
2. In order to test the candidates' powers of independent and original thought, the paper will include questions on the operations in the campaigns above indicated, based on a supposition that they were conducted in a manner different from that in which they were actually carried out.
3. Candidates are recommended to obtain the Report on the Staff College Entrance Examination of 1889, as soon as it is published.

A.O. 340.—Cavalry Regulations, 1887—Instructional Ride.

In the Regulations for the Instruction and Movements of Cavalry, 1887, under the head of "Military Equitation—Single Ride," Sections 14 to 19 are hereby cancelled, and "The Instructional Ride," copies of which will be issued to all concerned, will be substituted in lieu thereof.

A.O. 341.—Manual of Garrison Artillery, 1887—Alterations and Additions.

Alterations in, and additions to, the Manual of Garrison Artillery, 1887, have been approved, and will be issued to all concerned.

A.O. 342.—Recruiting—Royal Artillery.

1. Until further orders, growing lads, between 18 and 19 years of age, may be enlisted into the Royal Artillery as gunners at 5 feet 5½ inches in height and upwards.
2. The Schedule of the age, height, and chest measurement of recruits (Scale B), issued with Army Order 66 of 1889, will be amended accordingly.

A.O. 343.—Army School Regulations—Alterations and Additions.

Alterations in, and additions to, the Army School Regulations, 1889, will be made as under:—

1. The following will be added after para. 36:—
 36a. Whenever a schoolmistress is unable from any cause to attend school, it should be ascertained whether, instead of closing the school, it cannot be carried on by the mistress, if there is one, or, whether any qualified person is available for appointment under Art. 931 of the Royal Warrant for Pay, &c.
2. In line 6 of para. 53, inserted by Army Order 231 of 1889, for the word "six" the word "two" will be substituted.
3. Paras. 117 and 118 will be cancelled.
4. In para. 126, line 8, the words "and of the United States of America" will be omitted.

5. Para. 223 will stand amended as follows:—

223. Candidates for these posts will undergo a special course of training, and will, before its termination, be examined in the subjects required for a 1st Class Certificate of Education, and also in the following subjects:—

Reading.

Regimental Accounts.

Grammar. Work of Standard VI., and Previous Standards.

6. Paras. 224 and 225 will be cancelled.

7. Para. 226 will stand amended as follows:—

226. One hundred marks will be allotted for Reading and Grammar, of which 60 must be obtained in; Reading and 40 in Grammar in order to count.

A Battery Schoolmaster's Certificate will not be granted unless the candidate is reported as a good teacher and instructor in the different subjects.

8. In para. 227 the words "and Dictation" will be omitted.

9. Para. 228 will be cancelled.

10. In Appendix VII., para. 5, line 3, for "last Wednesday" the words "first Tuesday" will be substituted; and in para. 25, lines 1 and 2, for "Midsummer" the word "October" will be substituted.

A.O. 344.—Regimental Designations.

Her Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to approve of the Buckinghamshire (Royal Bucks) Regiment of Yeoman Cavalry being in future designated the Buckinghamshire (Royal Bucks Hussars) Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry.

II.—AUXILIARY FORCES.

A.O. 345.—Volunteer Regulations, 1887—Non-commissioned Officers and Sappers of Submarine Miners.

The following alterations and additions will be made in the Volunteer Regulations, 1887:—

1. The following will be inserted after para. 442a, as added by Army Order 281 of 1888:—

442c. In cases where it may be considered desirable that non-commissioned officers and sappers of Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, who have not completed their second training, should be instructed locally instead of proceeding to the School of Military Engineering, applications on Army Form E 619 may be submitted by the Commanding Officer, and forwarded to the General Officer Commanding for transmission to the Adjutant-General. The local instruction will count in diminution of the total period allowed for attendance at the School of Military Engineering. The course will be the same as that laid down in para. 418, except that in cases where it is desirable to give increased instruction in water-work, Volunteers may, with the sanction of the General Officer Commanding, be instructed for two months in Part II. of the Submarine Mining Course. The number of non-commissioned officers and men instructed locally will not exceed annually 20 per cent. of the establishment of each division.

2. The following will be substituted for para. 600:—

600. Non-commissioned officers and sappers attending the School of Military Engineering under para. 442, or permitted to receive local instruction under para. 442c, will, while under instruction, be granted an allowance of 5s. a day, which will be paid weekly in arrear on the certificate of the Commandant of the School, or the Commanding Royal Engineer, as the case may be, that they are making good progress with their instruction. Non-commissioned officers and men attending the School of Military Engineering for instruction will be provided with quarters.

H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

P. RAVENHILL, Major-General, R.E.,
Chairman of Committee.

DAUGHTERS OF OFFICERS OF THE ARMY

Under the Patronage of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

Contributions are earnestly solicited to enable the Committee to maintain the full number of foundation pupils in the School.

Each donation of 5*l.* 5*s.* entitles to one vote for life, and each annual subscription of 10*s.* 6*d.* paid in advance, gives one vote for the elections during the year.

The School presents exceptional advantages to Officers wishing to obtain for their Daughters the very best possible education at a cost far below the ordinary charge. With that object a limited number of Officers' Daughters are admitted on payment of 80*l.* a year each. Full particulars can be obtained from the Secretary on written application.

Parents or Guardians are permitted to inspect the School within prescribed periods, on an order to be obtained from the Secretary.

By Order.
